

Volunteer Fair

Philadelphia City Hall
September 11, 2009

Presented by

Global Citizen
Think Globally. Act Locally.

Philly Serves Volunteer Fair

The Philly Serves Volunteer Fair is brought to you by Global Citizen, in partnership with Mayor Michael Nutter. This event is our way of honoring September 11th as a National Day of Remembrance and Service and will highlight our city and region's commitment to volunteering and civic engagement. Our goal is to promote volunteer action throughout the entire year. The Volunteer Fair offers an opportunity for every Philadelphian to learn how non-profit organizations are making a difference, how individuals can sign up to volunteer their time and talents, and help make a lasting impact on the lives of other Philadelphians. Our participating organizations are:

Academy of Natural Sciences

www.ansp.org

The Academy of Natural Sciences is a museum and research center whose mission is the encouragement and cultivation of the sciences. Volunteers serve as informal museum guides for visitors of all ages, and assist in the environmental research center, the biodiversity collections, and the library.

ACHIEVEability

www.achieveability.org

A nonprofit organization with the mission to permanently break the cycle of poverty through education, social services, housing, community and economic development, and accountability.

AARP

www.aarp.org

AARP promotes a society in which everyone ages with dignity and purpose. With more than 39 million members, AARP is the leading nonprofit, nonpartisan membership organization for people age 50 and older in the United States. Membership in AARP is open to any person age 50 or above. AARP champions positive social change through information, advocacy, philanthropy, products, and community service to enrich people's lives today and those of generations to come.

American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)

www.aclupa.org

ACLU of PA defends and promotes the principles embodied in the Constitution, including freedom of speech and religion, the right to privacy, equality, and due process for all Pennsylvanians.

American Red Cross, SEPA Chapter

www.redcross-philly.org

The American Red Cross, a humanitarian organization led by volunteers, helps people prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies.

AmeriCorps NCCC (Nat'l Civilian Community Corps)

www.americorps.gov/nccc

A National service organization for 18-24 yr olds who wish to strengthen their communities and develop leadership skills. It is a team-based, residential program where you can earn an education reward.

AmeriCorps VISTA

www.americorps.gov/vista

AmeriCorps VISTA is the national service program designed specifically to fight poverty. Founded as Volunteers in Service to America in 1965 and incorporated into the AmeriCorps network of programs in 1993, VISTA has been on the front lines in the fight against poverty in America for more than 40 years. VISTA members commit to serve full-time for a year at a nonprofit organization or local government agency, working to fight illiteracy, improve health services, create businesses, strengthen community groups, and much more.

Apprise: Mayor's Commission on Services to the Aging

Health insurance counseling for older Pennsylvanian's provided by volunteers and funded by the Department of Aging.

Arc of Philadelphia/ PDDC

www.arcpddc.org

The Arc of Philadelphia/PDDC serves and advocates for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities throughout the Philadelphia area. We would love to provide a terrific experience in volunteering with our many programs.

Art Sanctuary

www.artsanctuary.org

Art Sanctuary is a non-profit literary arts organization devoted to producing quality programming for the community, educators, and families. We offer teachers workshops, as well as free after school teen programs in poetry, spoken word, dance, music and multimedia. We produce the Celebration of Black Writing Conference Annually and the Lifetime Achievement Award to a black literary artist who makes significant contribution to our communities through their literary art. We partner with other organizations throughout the region to continue providing quality programming.

Arts and Business Council of Greater Philadelphia

www.artsandbusinessphila.org

The Arts and Business Council of Greater Philadelphia helps drive the cultural vitality and economic development of the region by strengthening the partnership between business and the arts and cultural community. Volunteer programs include Business Volunteers for the Arts, Business on Board, and Philadelphia Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts.

ASAP (After School Activities Partnerships)

www.phillyasap.org

ASAP's mission is to keep Philadelphia's youth safe and active by facilitating supervised enrichment activities in the dangerous after school hours. ASAP recruits volunteers, places them at a site, and provides materials to lead activities.

Back on my Feet

www.backonmyfeet.org

Back on my Feet is a nonprofit organization that promotes the self-sufficiency of the homeless population by engaging them in running as a means to build self-confidence, strength, and self-esteem. Back on my Feet does not provide food nor does it provide shelter, but instead provides a community that supports and embraces equality, respect, discipline, teamwork, and leadership. There are no labels, no stigmas, and no stereotypes. All members, regardless of race, education, or socioeconomic status, join together to move their own lives forward as well as the lives of their teammates.

BEBASHI- Transition to Hope

www.bebashi.org

BEBASHI was founded in 1985 and was the first minority agency to address the alarming increase of HIV/AIDS in the African American community. Our mission is to provide culturally sensitive information, direct service, research, and technical assistance to the urban community.

Benefits Data Trust

www.bdtrust.org

Through the BenePhilly Initiative, Benefits Data Trust is able to reach out to low-income seniors in Philadelphia who are eligible, but not receiving, valuable Federal and State benefits, such as PACE/NET, PTRR, Food Stamps, and LIHEAP.

Big Brothers Big Sisters

www.bbbssep.org

Big Brothers Big Sisters is the largest and most effective youth mentoring organization in the state, and it has matched youth in a one-on-one mentoring relationships with caring adult volunteers since 1915. Our volunteer Big Brothers and Big Sisters serve as friends, mentors, and role models, helping those "littles" to realize their full potential.

Black Women's Health Alliance

www.blackwomenshealthproject.org

The Black Women's Health alliance, established in 1983 as the Philadelphia Black Women's Health Project, is a private nonprofit community-based organization that defines, promotes, and maintains the physical, mental, social and spiritual well-being of African-American women and women of color and their families. The mission of BWHA is to improve healthcare outcomes and eliminate and/or reduce health disparities experienced by women of African Ancestry, other women of color, and their families through advocacy, education, research, and support activities, programs, and services.

Broader View Volunteers

www.abroaderview.org

A Broader View is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. ABV arranges service programs in developing countries worldwide. Based mostly in South America, Asia, and Africa, our humanitarian programs focus on orphan support, education, healthcare, conservation, construction, and community development.

BuildaBridge

www.buildabridge.org

BuildaBridge is a nonprofit arts and intervention organization that engages the transformative power of the arts (dance, drama, music, creative writing, visual, and culinary arts) to bring hope and healing to children, families, and communities in Philadelphia and abroad.

Campaign for Working Families

www.phillyfreetaxes.org

CWF seeks practical ways to improve the economic status of working people in Philadelphia. One practical way we do this is by boosting the number of people who receive FREE tax filing assistance and help ensure that all who are eligible receive the Earned Income Tax Credit.

Career Wardrobe

www.careerwardrobe.org

The Career Wardrobe is the nation's largest community-based nonprofit organization dedicated to assisting women in their transition to work by providing professional attire, networking, and career skills training. Since 1994, we have helped over 50,000 women with support!

CeaseFire PA

www.ceasefirepa.org

As the largest organization working to reduce gun violence, injury, and death in PA, CeaseFire PA seeks the enactment of sensible gun regulations and public policies through grassroots activism, the election of public officials who favor the prevention of gun violence, and the increase of public awareness about ways to prevent themselves and their loved ones from becoming victims of gun violence.

Center for Literacy

www.centerforliteracy.org

The Center for Literacy is the nation's largest community-based literacy provider, serving more than 4,000 adults and youth in Philadelphia each year. Specialty programs from GED, ESL, and diploma programs are enriched by a corps of 400 volunteer tutors.

City Year

www.cityyear.org

City Year unites young people of all backgrounds for a year of full-time service, giving them the skills and opportunities to change the world. As tutors, mentors, and role models, these idealistic leaders make a difference in the lives of children, and transform schools and neighborhoods. Just as important, during their year of service, corps members develop civic leadership skills they can use throughout a lifetime of community service. Together we build a citizen service movement that is larger than our organization, our lifetime, and ourselves.

Coming of Age

www.philadelphia.comingofage.org

Coming of Age is an initiative to promote age 50+ civic engagement, learning, and leadership. It is a partnership of the Intergenerational Center at Temple U, WHYY, AARP Pennsylvania, and the United Way of Southeastern PA.

Community Design Collaborative

www.design.org

We are a community design center that provides nonprofit organizations access to pro-bono preliminary design services, offers unique volunteer opportunities for design professionals, and raises awareness about the importance of design in community revitalization.

Council of Spanish Speaking Organizations of Philadelphia

www.elconcilio.net

We are a child welfare organization that offers the following services: adoptions, foster care, parenting, summer camp, lead testing, immunizations, food and clothing, tobacco cessation for youth and adults, and cultural events

Council of Spanish Speaking Organizations of Philadelphia- BUSTED!

www.econcilio.net

Concilio has been guided by a mission to ensure that equitable social, educational, health, and cultural services are available and affordable for everyone. As a part of Concilio, Phialdelphia BUSTED! Is a youth led anti-tobacco movement dedicated to ending manipulation by Big Tobacco.

Cradles to Crayons

www.cradlestocrayons.org

We are a nonprofit that provides, free of charge, the basic essentials that low-income and homeless children need to be safe, warm, ready to learn, and valued. We also provide tangible volunteer opportunities to thousands of youth and adults each year.

Education Works

www.educationworks-online.org

An AmeriCorps Program that engages and enriches the lives of children and families through volunteerism. We are recruiting members.

Empowerment Group

www.empowerment-group.org

Empowerment Group accelerates economic growth in distressed urban communities by cultivating local entrepreneurship. Our bottom line is to create positive, lasting change for our clients, their families, and their communities.

Experience Corps

www.experiencecorps.org

Experience Corps is an award-winning national program that engages older adults to support schools in improving the reading and literacy skills of children in grades K-8.

Foster Grandparent Program

www.phila.gov/mocs

We are a senior volunteer program open to Philadelphia residents age 60 and over with limited incomes. Foster grandparent volunteers serve as mentors, tutors, and caregivers for at-risk children and youth with special needs through a variety of community organizations.

Franklin Institute

www.fi.edu

In the spirit of inquiry and discovery embodied by Benjamin Franklin, the mission of the Franklin Institute is to inspire an understanding and passion for science and technology learning. We offer new and exciting access to science and technology and are supported by an active corps of volunteers and interns who enjoy working with visitors and behind the scenes.

Friends of the Free Library

www.libraryfriends.org

This is an independent, nonprofit organization whose mission is to support the Free Library of Philadelphia. Through affiliate neighborhood volunteer groups, we promote cooperation and communication between the community and the Free Library and advocate for library services for all.

Girl Scouts Eastern PA

www.gsep.org

(GSEP) serves over 42,000 girls ages 5 through 17 in Berks, Bucks, Carbon, Chester, Delaware, Lehigh, Montgomery, Northampton, and Philadelphia Counties. GSEP was chartered on May 1, 2007. We are a volunteer-based non-profit organization with over 14,000 adult volunteers. All programs remain grounded in the rich Girl Scout traditions—the Promise and law yet are committed to being relevant to the changing needs of girls today. We can match your expertise, skills, interests, and life experience to a volunteer opportunity available at GSEP, and you will have the freedom to tailor your level of involvement to fit your schedule and lifestyle. Join us in building girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place.

Global Citizen

www.globalcitizen.us.com

www.mlkdayofservice.org

Global Citizen is a non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting civic engagement, community volunteering, civic responsibility and sustained active citizenship among diverse groups, particularly young people. Global Citizen promotes democracy building, voter education and participation, locally and globally. We bring together people of all ages and backgrounds to build diverse partnerships through serving others, thus realizing how much more we have in common than our difference. Programs run by Global Citizen include the Greater Philadelphia Martin Luther King Day of Service, the largest King Day event in the nation and MLK365, which promotes year-round volunteer service and civic engagement.

Grandma's Kids

www.gkids.templecil.org

GK is a program at the Intergenerational Center located in Temple University. We provide afterschool and kinship support services for children residing with their grandparents. GK's four schools in the District of Philadelphia are: Blankenburg, Blaine, Harrison, McKinley.

Habitat for Humanity Montgomery County

www.habitatmontco.org

Seeking to eliminate poverty housing in Montgomery County, Habitat for Humanity of Montgomery County's mission is to build simple, decent, affordable houses in partnership to empower hardworking, low-income families to become homeowners by providing no-interest, no-profit mortgages.

HOPE worldwide Pennsylvania

www.hopeww.org

Hope Worldwide PA is a nonprofit faith-based organization that changes lives by harnessing the compassion and commitment of staff and volunteers to make a high impact in the lives of children and their families by working in 3 Philadelphia schools teaching and implementing health and wellness curriculum for around 1,000 children. We are also in need of 40 AmeriCorps members and 100 volunteers on a weekly basis. We assist teachers in classrooms and gym classes. We run an after school program as well as two Saturday programs.

Independence Seaport Museum

www.phillyseaport.org

Independence Seaport Museum is a nonprofit, educational institution that collects, preserves, exhibits, and interprets artifacts and archival materials, and nurtures the culture of Philadelphia's rich maritime past and present. The museum offers a number of volunteer opportunities within the education department including the historic ships exhibit gallery programs.

Institute for the Study of Civic Values

www.iscv.org

There are volunteer opportunities at our afterschool summer camp program for 5th-8th grade youth. This is a civic education/art therapy program to help young people find their "inner activists" through artistic expression.

Inner-City Movement, Inc

www.icmovement.org

Inner-City Movement makes the heart of God known experientially through arts-intergrated prayer, theatrical productions, training, and strategic community partnerships.

Intergenerational Center, Temple U

www.templecil.org

We are committed to bringing generations together to address critical social concerns and creating opportunities for lifelong civic engagement

Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia

www.jewishphilly.org

We are a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the lives of low-income jews and others in the Philadelphia-Metropolitan area, as well as those in the surrounding counties.

Keep Philadelphia Beautiful

www.KeepPhiladelphiaBeautiful.org

Keep Philadelphia Beautiful encourages people to volunteer to improve the way Philadelphia neighborhoods look. The Litter Free School Zone is one opportunity for our youngest citizens to become aware of their personal environmental impact and change the behaviors that negatively impact their community. Keep Philadelphia Beautiful is recruiting educators of young people at schools, after school programs, church groups, Scouts etc who want to groom the next generation of citizens.

League of Women Voters of Philadelphia

www.palwv.org/philadelphia

We are a nonpartisan political organization fighting since 1920 to improve our systems of government and impact public policy through citizen education and advocacy. Our mission is to make democracy work for all citizens.

LIFT Philadelphia

www.nspnet.org

LIFT is a growing movement to combat poverty and expand opportunity for all people in Philadelphia. We try to help alleviate poverty by offering a wide range of services and by using college volunteers.

Little Brothers - Friends of the Elderly

www.philadelphia.littlebrothers.org

We serve isolated seniors with a variety of friendly visiting, socialization and personal advocacy programs.

Logan CDC

www.logancdc.org

Logan CDC is a newly restored community development corporation serving the Logan neighborhood of Philadelphia. Our mission is to enhance the quality of life for business residents and businesses through a broad range of revitalization efforts including a neighborhood committee and a technology center.

LOGAN Hope

www.loganhope.org

LOGAN Hope is a Christian K-8 Street School serving mostly Cambodian refugee families in the Logan neighborhood of North Philadelphia. LOGAN Hope also sponsors an afterschool program and summer day camp. Its staff and volunteers advocate for families and partner with others to transform our city and its people.

Mercy Neighborhood Ministries of Philadelphia, Inc.

www.mercyneighbors.org

We are a 501© (3) non-profit organization composed of ministries founded over 35 years ago by the Sisters of Mercy from Merion, PA and the Catholic parishes of North Philadelphia. Our mission is to create partnerships and services that respond to the needs of those who are poor in the North Philadelphia community, especially women, children, and persons with special needs. We provide quality programming, which includes a licensed Childcare program for school age children, a licensed Adult Day Care program, and Adult Education and Human Development. We have a Health and Wellness Initiative in place that provides information and education to improve the health outcomes of families and individuals in the community.

Mothers in Charge

www.mothersincharge.org

We are an organization of women, mothers, aunts, grandmothers, and sisters who have lost loved ones through violence. We give support to one another and work within the community to stop violence. We work within the schools and prisons, partner with churches, and do what we can to help the youth population.

National Union of American Families (NUAF)

www.naufonline.org

NUAF establishes for all families: equal economic, educational, and social opportunities. We promote civic participation, organize neighborhoods, build communities, and strengthen America for a better world.

Norris Square Neighborhood Project

www.nsnp.com

Norris Square Neighborhood Project is a community-driven, bilingual learning center that provides the Norris Square community with quality youth programs including after-school childcare, a summer day camp and leadership development, programs supporting and empowering neighborhood women, and community gardening/neighborhood beautification efforts.

Northwest EPIC Stakeholders

The Northwest E.P.I.C. Stakeholders group is a collaboration between various community interest groups that together identify causes of school truancy and design activities, events and programs to improve attendance. This cross sectional representation of the community includes schools, law enforcement, business, C.B.O.'s, and residents. It operates on the premise that a community should be trusted to recognize what its assets and challenges are, to articulate its concerns as a structured entity, and to design and implement solutions. Northwest E.P.I.C. Stakeholders places power where it belongs- in the community and its residents.

Operation HOPE

www.operationhope.org

A nonprofit that connects local volunteers to local schools, teaching the basics of banking and personal finance in a multi-visit program. The program is free for schools and for volunteers to get involved.

Pathways PA

www.pathwayspa.org

Pathways PA serves the Greater Philadelphia Region by keeping families together, supporting teen parents and their children, providing in-home services to prevent child abuse, and assisting families in their move towards self-sufficiency.

Pennsylvania Horticultural Society

www.pennsylvaniahorticulturalsociety.org

PHS is a nonprofit organization founded in 1827. PHS motivates people to improve the quality of life and create a sense of community through horticulture.

Pennsylvania SPCA

www.pspca.org

We provide shelter and care for animals, educate the public on the care and treatment of animals, fight animal abuse and cruelty, and assist animal adoptions so that they may have safe homes.

Philabundance

www.philabundance.org

Founded in 1984 as a food rescue organization, Philabundance is a local nonprofit that works to end hunger and malnutrition in the Delaware Valley by acquiring food and distributing it through organizations serving people in need. Services provided include: food distribution directly to network agencies, Philabundance Community Kitchen, Safe Food Handling Training, Fresh For All, Emergency Food Box, Commodity Supplemental Food Box.

Philadelphia BAEO

philadelphiabaeo.org

BAEO's mission is to actively support parental choice to empower families and increase quality educational options for Black children.

Philadelphia Clef Club

www.clefclub.org

Our mission is to further the cultural level of jazz in Philadelphia and to promote projects to benefit jazz musicians. We also provide classes and seminars to expose children and adult students to trends and new formats in the music.

Philadelphia Corporation for Aging

www.pcacares.org

PCA is a private, non-profit Area Agency on aging. PCA coordinates social services for Philadelphians who are older or who have disabilities to achieve optimal levels of health, independence, and productivity.

Philadelphia Futures

www.philadelphiafutures.org

Philadelphia Futures is a nonprofit organization that provides promising, urban high school students with the tools they need to achieve their dream of a college education. The organization's centerpiece program, Sponsor-A-Scholar, helps students from economically disadvantaged families to succeed in high school, and to pursue and complete higher education, by providing one-on-one mentoring; financial incentives; and a year-round curriculum of academic skill building and enrichment, including after-school classes, college guidance activities and cultural opportunities. Since its inception in 1989, Philadelphia Futures has helped thousands of students to build a better future.

Philadelphia Reads

www.phila.gov/philareads

Our mission is to strengthen the literacy skills of Philadelphia's youngest and neediest school children by providing mentors and resources for in and out of school programs. We want to ensure that all children develop a life-long love of reading and be prepared to be active and engaged citizens. Volunteer opportunities include: Power Partners, Reading Coach, Read Across America Day, Phila Reading Olympics, Book Drives, Book Banks (we will be doing a children's book drive for the Free Children's Book Bank).

Philadelphia Saves

www.phillysaves.org

Philadelphia Saves is a part of the America Saves Campaign. It is designed to encourage everyone to build his or her wealth and assets. In an effort to eliminate the many barriers of saving, Philadelphia Saves is housed at Consumer Credit Counseling Services of Delaware Valley and provides financial information and access to free reduced-fee savings products. Attend a free workshop, or just start by making a personal commitment to yourself about savings. We have many volunteer opportunities.

Philadelphia Zoo

www.philadelphiazoo.org

The Philadelphia Zoo's 42-acre Victorian garden is home to more than 1,300 animals, many of them rare and endangered. The Zoo, fulfilling its mission of conservation, science, education and recreation, supports and engages in conservation efforts to protect endangered species around the world. Cheetahs, hippos, giraffes and much more make the Zoo Philadelphia's leading family attraction with over 1.2 million visitors last year.

Philly AIDS Thrift

www.PhillyAIDsthift.com

Philly AIDS Thrift is a non-profit thrift store. Our mission is to sell the lovely and unique items that are donated to our store. We then distribute the funds raised to local Philadelphia HIV/AIDS organizations. Our organization is run in large part by Volunteers and we have flexible 3-hour shifts to suit everyone's needs!

Physicians for Social Responsibility

www.psrphila.org

PSR, a public health non-profit, mobilizes individuals, health professionals, and community organizations to promote local and global non-violence, a healthy environment, and access to healthcare for all. PSR is connecting with communities to build a safer, healthier Philadelphia.

Police Athletic League of Philadelphia

www.phillypal.com

The Police Athletic League of Philadelphia (PAL) is a 501©(3) non-profit organization with a mission to make a positive difference in the lives of young people and contribute to the overall quality of life in Philadelphia. By providing free educational, athletic, recreational and cultural after-school and summer programs in the safe environments of 26 youth centers, PAL teaches life skills and provides experiences essential for youth to become successful and productive citizens. We accomplish these things by having volunteers help the officers at each center.

Reiki Healing Center

www.reikihealingcenter.org

The Reiki Healing Center is a place where children and adults can come learn about, experience, and learn to do Reiki-- a powerful relaxation and healing technique to improve their minds, bodies, and spirits for emotional well-being.

Resources for Human Development

www.rhd.org

RHD is a diversified human services nonprofit serving people in need with more than 160 programs in 13 states. We provide a wide range of services for the most vulnerable members of our society.

Retired & Senior Volunteer Program/RSVP Philadelphia

www.kleinjcc.org

RSVP provides the opportunity for people 55 and over, working or retired, to use their skills, talents, and experience to answer critical community needs through significant volunteer service.

Salvation Army

www.use.salvationarmy.org

The Salvation Army of Greater Philadelphia is a faith-based, comprehensive human service organization whose programs help individuals, families, and whole communities lead healthier, safer, and more productive lives. The Salvation Army has a 129-year track record of success stemming from its holistic approach to providing for the needs of the whole individual—physically, emotionally, economically, and spiritually.

Senior Community Services

www.scs-delco.org

SCS' mission is to promote independent and meaningful living for older adults through direct services and programs, both in the home and at four nationally accredited senior centers in Delaware County.

Share Food Program

www.sharefoodprogram.org

Share is a program for anyone needing a break on grocery bills by purchasing food at discounted prices in exchange for community service time.

Sickle Cell Disease Association of America

www.sicklecelldisorder.com

Community-based organization that provides resources, programs, and services to children, adults, and their families affected by sickle cell disease in Philadelphia, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, and Montgomery counties.

Town Watch Integrated Services

www.philawatch.com

TWIS promotes a sense of community and empowers the citizens to address their neighborhood concerns. Town Watch groups are the eyes and ears for the police and promote community policing.

Tree House Books

www.treehousebooks.org

THB is growing and sustaining a community of readers, writers, and thinkers in North Philadelphia. Our programs include our Magazine Workshop, Tutoring Time, and Junior Staff Leadership Program.

United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania

www.uwsepa.org

To improve people's lives by mobilizing the caring power of donors, volunteers, and communities.

US Census Bureau

www.2010census.gov

The 2010 Census is right around the corner. As mandated in the US Constitution, the census is conducted every 10 years and we are partnering with them to be sure that everyone is counted on Census Day, April 1, 2010. This is extremely important because $400 billion in federal funding is allocated annually based on census data. This means money and power for our community!

West Oak Lane NORC

www.einstein.edu/norc

A non-profit that provides free problem-solving and advocacy for older adults (60+). The NORC is also able to provide home visits for homebound older adults in and near West Oak Lane (19126, 19138, 19141, 19150).

Women's Campaign International

www.womenscampaigninternational.org

WCI is a United States-based, nonprofit, non-partisan organization dedicated to increasing the participation of a diverse population of women in political and democratic processes worldwide. WCI works towards this goal by providing women of all groups with the skills and knowledge needed to participate fully in decision-making and policy formation activities. It is the vision of WCI that, if women are better incorporated into decision-making processes worldwide, legislative agendas will focus greater attention on children and families, education, environment, healthcare, social welfare, and women's rights. In pursuit of this goal, it is WCI's mission to promote and assist women leaders at all levels to influence policy, laws and social issues in these areas.

Women's Way

www.womensway.org

WOMEN'S WAY has a mission is to raise money and public awareness to fight for and achieve women's equality, safety, self-sufficiency and reproductive freedom through women-centered funding, advocacy and education.

YouthBuild Philadelphia Charter School

www.youthbuildphilly.org

We serve a young adult population of 18-20 year old high school drop-outs. The school offers participants a unique opportunity to earn a high school diploma and acquire job skills through a vigorous 12-month program of alternating academic and work experience blocks.

Zhang Sah

www.zhangsah.org

Provides education in Martial Arts: Pre-K, After School programming, summer camps, lessons for children and adults.

Thank you for participating in today's event.
For more information about ongoing volunteer opportunities and a complete list of attendees, please visit our website at:

www.globalcitizen.us.com

A special thank you to our event sponsors

Celebrating Dr. King's legacy by turning community concerns into ongoing citizen action.

Global Citizen

Think Globally. Act Locally.

www.globalcitizen.us.com

I REMEMBER. I SERVE.

9/11 National Day of Service and Remembrance

SERVE.GOV

GlaxoSmithKline

High Point Cafe
Espresso Bar & Pastry Shop

PPA
PHILADELPHIA PARKING AUTHORITY